A MONTHLY PUBLICATION OF LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE CROSS

By Pastor Leland Lantz

Dear Friends in Christ,

How fit is your faith? I found this on the internet and this is right on target. Please make this a devotional exercise and evaluate yourself by checking out these 12 Signs of a Healthy Faith-Life by Mary Fairchild at About.com

12 Signs of a Healthy Faith-Life

Your faith is based on a relationship with God, not religious obligations and rituals. You follow Christ because you want to, not because you have to. Your relationship with Jesus flows naturally out of love. It is not forced or driven by guilt. (1 John 4:7-18; Hebrews 10:19-22.)

Your sense of security and significance is centered on God and who you are in Christ, not on others or your accomplishments. (1 Thessalonians 2:1-6; Ephesians 6:6-7.)

Your faith in God is strengthened as you walk through life's troubles, trials and painful experiences, not weakened or destroyed. (1 Peter 4:12-13; James 1:2-4.)

Your service to others flows out of genuine love and concern for them, not from compulsion or a need to be recognized. You offer your service as a joy and a pleasure and not an obligation or a heavy burden. (Ephesians 6:6-7; Ephesians 2:8-10; Romans 12:10.)

You value and respect the unique differences and individual gifts of your brothers and sisters in Christ, rather than expecting conformity to one Christian standard. You appreciate and celebrate others' gifts. (Romans 14; Romans 12:6; 1 Corinthians 12:4-31.)

You are able to give and receive trust and allow others to see you—and themselves—in a state of vulnerability and imperfection. You allow yourself and others the freedom to make mistakes. (1 Peter 3:8; Ephesians 4:2; Romans 14.)

You can relate to real, everyday people with a non-judgmental, non-legalistic attitude. (Romans 14; Matthew 7:1; Luke 6:37.)

You thrive in an atmosphere of learning, where free thinking is encouraged. Questions and doubts are normal. (1 Peter 2:1-3; Acts 17:11; 2 Timothy 2:15; Luke 2:41-47.)

You prefer balance over black and white extremes in your approach to the Bible, its teachings and the Christian life. (Ecclesiastes 7:18; Romans 14.)

You do not feel threatened or defensive when others hold to a different opinion or perspective. You can agree to disagree, even with other Christians. (Titus 3:9; 1 Corinthians 12:12-25; 1 Corinthians 1:10-17.)

You are not afraid of emotional expressions from yourself and others. Emotions are not bad, they just are. (Joel 2:12-13; Psalm 47:1; Psalm 98:4; 2 Corinthians 9:12-15.)

You have the ability to relax and have fun. You can laugh at yourself and at life. (Ecclesiastes 3:1-4; 8:15; Proverbs 17:22; Nehemiah 8:10)

I hope you find these as helpful as I did!

In Christ,

Pastor Leland <><

As a youth pastor, one of the highlights of working with teens is watching them serve. Observing students doing kingdom work brings joy to my heart. Just before Christmas I had the opportunity to serve alongside several of our students at KidWorks in Santa Ana as we wrapped presents for those in need. It was a great opportunity to share the love of Christ in a tangible way. Our students worked diligently and cheerfully engaged with all of the people we came in contact with. It was a true blessing to be a part of.

The Case for Christianity – Exploring why our faith makes sense

LCC / Laguna Woods - 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

On March 12, 2011, best selling authors Lee Strobel and Mark Mittelberg will present the latest historical and scientific evidence for Christianity and will answer the two biggest objections to the faith. This event will be viewed live via satellite and webcast at our Laguna Woods church campus in the social hall.

I Peter 3:15 tells Christians to be able to defend why they believe and what they believe – yet most Christians don't feel prepared to do so. In this one day event, you will be encouraged in your own faith and you will feel more confident in discussing the claims of Christianity with your friends and family! We can also use this as an outreach event so please invite seekers, those who do not yet know Jesus. Seekers can relate to Lee, because he once had the same doubts.

Please sign up for this special event. Cost is $10, which includes lunch. Tell a friend!

Save the Date!

On February 7, 2011, AVCS will be hosting "Columbine Redemption," the faith-based component of Rachel's Challenge with a middle school assembly, peer leadership training, and an evening event for all of our school, church, and community families. The program "will inspire every listener towards a life of kindness and compassion!"

The evening program will begin at 7:00 pm in the multi-purpose room. Please feel free to join us for this timely and important event. If you have any questions, please call the school office at 949-389-0300.

We are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. Romans 8:37

Look at our new basketball court!

Calling all AVCS families, alumni and supporters!! You are invited to participate in our first ever AVCS Spring Boutique!

On Saturday, April 2nd from 8:00am-12:30 pm, AVCS will hold its first ever Spring Boutique in the Multi-Purpose Room on the AV Campus. If you are an AVCS family, alumni of AVCS, or a supporter (friend/family member of an AVCS family or LCC affiliate) then you qualify to be a vendor for this event. We are pursuing all types of products: homemade, health & beauty, home décor, food, etc. Vendor selection will be first come, first serve with a maximum of (2) similar vendors (jewelry, cooking, etc.) per group with no more than 20 vendors total. There is a $50 table fee for this event. Slots are filling up fast, so if this is something you would like to be a part of, contact Tammy Walsh (muckertammy@aol.com or 830-6414) as soon as possible.

"What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31)

As we are currently in the "God, I wonder..." worship series, I'm reminded of the questions we have as Christians about our faith and about God. I'm also reminded of the questions that "not yet Christians" have about faith and God. Sometimes these questions intersect! We are all human, and have our struggles and doubts. However, as believers together, we can address these concerns, talk about God's Word together and be affirmed in our faith so that we can communicate God's love with those around us. I hope to see you over the next several weeks as we address questions such as: Why do bad things happen to good people? How do I know I am praying for the right things? What happens when I die? Is there a hell? Why are men and women so different? God... Are you there? God... Do you care? Real life questions. Real life answers.

As we move forward in 2011, it will be a blessing to be able to open our AV events center this spring. Events and ministries are being planned, including a spring start of mid-week ministry at LCC/AV. In the spring, we are planning to start Bible studies and youth/children's ministries at our AV campus on Wednesday nights, as well as continue our regular Sunday ministries. Your help in ministry is greatly needed as we grow and as we launch these ministries. Please let me know if you can help serve as a Sunday School teacher, communion preparer, usher or scripture reader during worship. Also, as we anticipate starting our Wednesday children and youth ministries at our AV campus, we will be needing an "army" of volunteers to help with dinner, children's ministry and youth ministry. I greatly appreciate your prayers and assistance. More information will be coming as we anticipate the start of these new ministries.

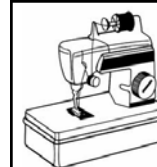

Let's continue to faithfully follow our Lord Jesus Christ and anticipate "greater things" that He will do in and through us. Remember, "If God is for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31). Go out and give 'em heaven!

In Christ,
Pastor John Foss

Beneath His Wings Hygiene items for the Homeless

In 2011 we will continue to collect hygiene items for the homeless on a regular basis. Please drop off any items you would like to give in the green plastic tubs located in the entry areas of both campuses. The approach to serving the homeless in our area this year will be more frequent and personal rather than the larger gatherings like Thanksgiving Day at the Fred Jordan mission. Because of this, we are asking for the support to be ongoing and will distribute what is available each time a serving event occurs. Please also consider coming along to help as we reach out in Jesus' name to the many in need. Information for these serving events will be provided in advance to help you plan. Thank you for your heart felt consideration towards this ministry! As Jesus said: "Whatever you've done unto the least of these, my brothers and sisters, you've done unto me."

Church Work Day February 12th

Thanks to all who participate and contribute their time and talent to the Lord! All help is appreciated.

"Dear friends,
let us love one another..." 1 John 4:7

Love is in the air this month at LCC Preschool. Our Fruit of the Spirit is ... Love, and our theme for the month is "Jesus Loves Me and Helps Me Grow". The children will learn about their five senses, health, nutrition, and just how lovingly they were made by God. We'll discuss how to develop loving relationships with others by sharing Valentine's with classmates. We will celebrate Valentine's Day with class parties, as well as sharing Jesus' love with children around the globe with the help of World Vision. The preschool children will follow a suggested love offering calendar provided by World Vision. At the end of the month their offerings will be collected and used to purchase much needed food producing animals for poor areas around the world. This is the third special outreach offering our preschool has participated in this school year. Our families continue to be generous and giving in the name of and for the sake of Jesus Christ.
