New Years Resolutions for 2011!

Dear Friends in Christ,

A New Year brings new beginnings and those infamous New Year resolutions! New beginnings are even better when you think about what Christ brings to us – forgiveness and hope of everlasting life. Jesus came into our world to bring us something we could not achieve for ourselves. Jesus also made resolutions.

- ✦ As the time approached for Jesus to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. Luke 9:51 Jesus made resolutions.
- ✦ Not one of the promises the Lord your God gave has failed. Every one has been fulfilled. Joshua 23:14 As our example, Jesus fulfilled His promises and resolutions, so shouldn't we do the same?
- ✦ Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! 2 Corinthians 5:17 We are made new through Christ.
- ✦ In 2011, Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is--His good, pleasing and perfect will. Romans 12:2 Jesus wants us to be transformed and renewed and to follow His perfect will!

Preaching Series - God I Wonder...

Last month, we put an insert in the bulletin asking you to turn in questions you have wondered about that could be addressed in sermons. On January 16th we will have a special seven week sermon series around these questions. The following questions will make up this series. A special thanks to everyone who turned in such intriguing questions! All questions turned in will be addressed throughout this series either in the service or in Bible Studies.

- January 16 God I wonder... Why do bad things happen to good people?
- January 23 God I wonder... How do I know I am praying for the right things?
- January 30 God I wonder... What happens when I die?
- February 6 God I wonder... Is there a hell? If so, why?
- February 13 God I wonder... Why are men and women so different?
- February 20 God I wonder... Are you there?
- February 27 God I wonder... Do you care?

I look forward to seeing you in worship!

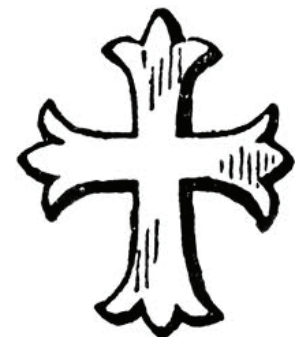

Here are some practical resolutions for 2011.

- Pray with your family and have devotions on a regular basis
- Attend church and Sunday school every week
- Read through the Bible this year (Peter Nitschke challenged us to read 15minutes a day) – attend our Isaiah Bible Study starting Jan. 4th & 5th!
- Share Christ with someone who is an unbeliever
- Visit a homebound person on a monthly basis
- Pray for our missionaries and go on a short-term missions trip
- Spend more time with family and friends
- Creatively use the gifts God has given you to serve Him through giving of your time, talent and treasure.
- Follow the Lord's leading.

I will be diligently working on my resolutions to point people to Christ. ...obviously that's what we pastors are called to do. Because I can only do so much myself, my resolution is to help us all be equipped to share our faith. How will we do this? First of all, we need to have a firm grasp of God's Word. Bible study and church attendance will be a key factor as these components help us to grow in our faith. Starting in January we will study Isaiah one of the Major Prophets. Bring a friend to church or Bible Study. Let us all make New Year resolutions that reflect the love and forgiveness we have received through Jesus Christ. Let us make a goal to each one reach one as we point others to heaven in 2011! Hey that rhymes!

Serving with you In Christ,

Pastor Leland <><

Youth Ministry Pastor Jamin Goggin

It's that time again! Our winter youth camps are just around the corner. The middle school Forest Home camp is January 21-23 and the high school Forest Home camp is February 18-21. These camps are always meaningful for the students. The weekend away provides space to connect with the Lord and to connect with fellow believers. I have watched year after year as God has moved in the lives of the students at our church. If you have a child who is in middle school or high school I strongly encourage you to send them to Forest Home this year. I can't wait to tell the stories of what God did in the lives of our students this year.

In Christ,

Jamin Goggin
Youth Pastor

The Case for Christianity – Exploring why our faith makes sense

LCC / Laguna Woods - 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

On March 12, 2011, best selling authors Lee Strobel and Mark Mittelberg will present the latest historical and scientific evidence for Christianity and will answer the two biggest objections to the faith. This event will be viewed live via satellite and webcast at our Laguna Woods church campus in the social hall.

1 Peter 3:15 tells Christians to be able to defend why they believe and what they believe – yet most Christians don't feel prepared to do so. In this one day event, you will be encouraged in your own faith and you will feel more confident in discussing the claims of Christianity with your friends and family! We can also use this as an outreach event so please invite seekers, those who do not yet know Jesus. Seekers can relate to Lee, because he once had the same doubts.

Please sign up for this special event. Other churches in our area will be participating as well in this special simulcast event. Cost is $10, which includes lunch. Bring a friend!

AVCS Happenings/School Ministries

We hope you had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! Christmas was beautiful on the AVCS campus. The exciting and joyous happenings in December at AVCS include:

- Event Center and playground construction is amazing!
- December 6: AVCS welcomed five 4th and 5th grade Korean students who are going to AVCS for 12 weeks as part of our International Department.
- December 9: We enjoyed the 1st and 2nd graders Christmas Musical – "It's a Wonder-Full Life"
- December 10: We held a Special Chapel Focus Offering for Orange County Rescue Mission
- December 12: The 3rd and 4th Grade AVCS Choir Club sang at The Shops of Mission Viejo
- December 15: The students enjoyed "Getting Cozy for Christmas" Free Dress Day and Bake Sale
- December 17: Our Happy Birthday Jesus Chapel and Classroom Celebrations were held.

Other service projects last month include: Build a Bear Service Project to brighten the holiday for children who are living in Orange County motels and winter clothes collection for children living in Eastern Kentucky through the Christian Appalachian Project. It is such a blessing to boldly proclaim and celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior! Thank you for your prayers and support of our students, parents, teachers, staff, and administration!

LCC and AVCS Moms & Friends, Please join us for encouragement and fellowship at our next Bible study, entitled:

Lutheran Church of the Cross Aliso Viejo

"See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the desert and streams in the wasteland." (Isaiah 43:19)

Welcome to 2011 at Lutheran Church of the Cross! The year of 2011 promises to be a "year of transformation" in many ways. At Aliso Viejo, we are looking forward to the physical transformation at our campus as our events center opens soon! This will be a wonderful place of fellowship, learning and education for our church and school. Spiritually, we are expecting God to move in powerful ways as well in 2011, as we begin the Alpha course, as we renew our mid-week children/youth/adult ministry at Aliso Viejo on Wednesday nights and as we look forward to special events at our Events Center that will inspire and attract people to the ministries of our LCC/AV church and school. The book of Isaiah will be our core Bible study offering in the winter and spring of 2011. Let's anticipate God doing great and mighty things through His church in this upcoming year. May He transform us and the world around us, and renew us by His grace.

Our vision is for God, through the Holy Spirit, to shape us into a vibrant church that transforms our community and the world with the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

Together with you, anticipating "greater things" in 2011,

Pastor John Foss

Council Meeting Minder

by Mary Ann Schlesinger

She shall bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus for He will save His people from their sins. Matthew 1:21

Council Meeting Minder

On December 13, 2010, committees and council met to discuss events to glorify our Lord:

✦ Peter Nitschke, Council President (retiring), thanked the Council members for their time and commitment in 2010, and special thanks to those retiring: Jay Broderick, Steve Lentz, Roger Marsh, Sara Martinez, and David Moses. Noteworthy accomplishments for the year: ELCA resolution and the G.I.F.T. campaign.

✦ Pastor John reminded us to bring Christ's light to others. He is excited to see the AV Event Center progress, and wondering what changes will occur to the Multi-purpose room.

✦ Pastor Leland mentioned more than 20 women have been attending the Beth Moore study; pleased that Christine Emmons is leading that exciting class. Roger Marsh and Ken Whitney are attending ministry. Kim Butz, Children's Ministry Director is leaving LCC staff at the end of this month. Jamin Goggin will absorb the responsibility of Children's Ministry.

✦ Shannon Brack, Treasurer: 2011 proposed budget was approved by Admin. Personnel Committee, Council, and the congregation at the meeting on the 19th of December. Church is trending at -$75k, and both schools are doing well.

✦ Pastor's housing allowances, no changes from last year, were discussed and approved by Council.

✦ Aliso Viejo Christian School is still interviewing for the Vice Principal's position.

✦ Please email your Committee Year-End report to maryann@lccotc.org by Dec. 15th

✦ Six new council members were approved by Council and the congregation at the Dec. 19th meeting: Art Adams, Mike Allen, Scott Dawson, Ted Holmquist, Kevin Murphy, and Deb Richards.

✦ Construction update: LW needs only finishing touches; AV is encountering some delays due to rainy weather.

$10k approved for stewardship education from the Giesy estate, and $20k to help support our two ministry students, Roger Marsh and Ken Whitney.

Upcoming events:

- ✦ Council-Staff retreat January 22nd at LW
- ✦ Lee Strobel simulcast in March at LW
- ✦ Men's Retreat - tba
- ✦ Lincoln Brewster concert at AV- tba

Beneath His Wings Hygiene items for the Homeless

In 2011 we will continue to collect hygiene items for the homeless on a regular basis. Please drop off any items you would like to give in the green plastic tubs located in the entry areas of both campuses. The approach to serving the homeless in our area this year will be more frequent and personal rather than the larger gatherings like Thanksgiving Day at the Fred Jordan mission. Because of this, we are asking for the support to be ongoing and will distribute what is available each time a serving event occurs. Please also consider coming along to help as we reach out in Jesus' name to the many in need. Information for these serving events will be provided in advance to help you plan. Thank you for your heart felt consideration towards this ministry! As Jesus said: "Whatever you've done unto the least of these, my brothers and sisters, you've done unto me."

Pastors in Training!

Roger Marsh and Ken Whitney have been discerning a calling to pastoral ministry and will begin theological studies through on-line courses through ILT – Institute of Lutheran Theology. Lutheran Church of the Cross will also offer courses in ministry training starting in February to anyone from our congregation or local churches. One of the first class offerings for lay people is called Biblical Ministry to Youth and Families. If you are interested in taking this class, please contact the church office.

The Institute of Lutheran Theology: Mission and Vision

The Institute of Lutheran Theology is an independent, pan-Lutheran theological project, holding that God in Jesus Christ brings sinners to repentance and new life. Committed both to Scripture and the Lutheran Confessions, and to deep dialogue with the contemporary intellectual horizon, the Institute works with supporting congregations to educate the next generation of faithful Lutheran preachers and teachers.

Theological Values

These are the five foundational theological principles which shape our curriculum and thinking:

1. Theological Realism: God is real and exists beyond human awareness, conception and language. Accordingly, we do not pray to ourselves, but to a real God.
2. Semantic Realism: God's gift of language enables us make truth claims about God. Human emotion, thought and language do not ultimately determine what is true or false about God.
3. Theophysical Causality: God can and does act in the world. Divine action must not be construed as mere metaphor.
4. A Lutheran Theology of Nature: Conversation with science and technology furthers our recognition that God expresses God's self in the natural order in ways that inform our understanding of the divine. The Internal Clarity of Scripture: God's revelation is expressed clearly in Holy Scripture, whose words can be understood by the reader as the Holy Spirit interprets their meaning. Please keep Roger and Ken in your prayers as they study and do ministry through our congregation!

A Message From Kim Butz...

What a blessing and privilege it has been to share in the ministry of Lutheran Church of the Cross over the past almost three years. I have had the opportunity to participate in a dynamic ministry to children and families, and to serve with a wonderful staff as we shared the message of God's great love for us. Several months ago I reduced the number of hours I was working and went from full time to part time so I could go back to school working towards a Master's Degree in Marketing and Communication. I am grateful LCC was willing to accommodate this changing season in my life. I was recently offered a position to serve at a Lutheran school in Orange as their Admissions Counselor, working with marketing and increasing the enrollment in the school. Because of this I resigned as the Director of Children's Ministries at LCC December 31, 2010.

I believe this is the adventure I am being called to now, and I am looking forward to discovering all God has in store for me in this new season of life. I will miss my LCC family tremendously and pray that God will continue to use the Ministries here to reach out to a hurting and broken world. May God richly bless you all in this New Year, and new season of Ministry.

In His Love and Service,

Kim Butz
