

Aliso Viejo Christian School

4th Grade Summer Reading

Students must read at least two books from the choices below. During the first two weeks of school, the 4th grade students will be assigned one-two projects using specific information from the books they read during the summer. Please help them be prepared for the start of the new school year by having their two selected books read before the first day of school. Again, you may choose any two books from the following series or list of books below:
